HINDENBURG AGREES TO SPLIT AUTHORITY

(International News Service.)

Amsterdam, Jan. 16.—Germany's internal crisis again has been settled, according to a dispatch today quoting the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger. According to the dispatch, Hindenburg has given in to Chancellor Hertling regarding the situation in the east, in return for being given a free hand in the west.

The field marshal, it was stated, will be an absolute dictator in all questions affecting the western front. Just what policy Hertling will pursue in regard to the peace proposals with Russia were not made clear.

CONGRESS IS BUSY CONCOCTING TONIC TO SPEED UP WAR

UNITED STATES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PROTESTS AGAINST LOOSE METHODS.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Jan. 16.—The war inquiries virtually ended, congress today turning its energies to concocting tonics to build up and speed up the war management. Scores of measures, many of them with committee backing to remedy defective administration disclosed by the investigation, were ready for consideration.

Hard fighting seemed certain, with the administration still vigorously contending for a free hand in the conduct of the war. The senate military affairs committee suspended its investigation to give its attention to the program of army legislation prepared by the war department as well as the Chamberlain bill to establish a department of munitions. Among the measure is the resolution to make all young men who have attained 21 since June 5 eligible to the draft and the bill authorizing a change of the draft basis.

Meanwhile the senate commerce committee, profiting by the information already obtained in its investigations, prepared to push important measures to strengthen the ship building administration.

U. S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WANTS POWER CENTRALIZED (International News Service.)

Washington, Jan. 16.—The first serious protest against the "loose methods" characterizing features of the war preparations made its appearance today. It comes from the U. S. chamber of commerce and specifically points out that the newest plans announced by the government are tending to de-centralize war efforts.

Adequate central control is demanded and the board of directors of the chamber make it plain that they intend to carry their protest to congress. Strong emphasis is put upon the seriousness of the situation and it is pointed out that the fate of the war may depend upon concerted action by all governmental departments.

The report of the chamber was prepared after an investigation lasting since June by a committee made up of Waddill Catchings, chairman, president of the Sloss-Sheffield Iron & Steel Company; John A. Fahey, H. L. Ferguson and others.

RIVER READINGS.

Chattanooga, Jan. 16.—(Special).—The Tennessee river will continue to rise, according to the forecast of the U. S. weather bureau here. The stream is full of heavy floating ice at lower river points, but is still frozen over here. At Bridgeport the gauge stands at 6.6, with .001 rainfall, while at Guntersville it reads 10.9 and snow is falling.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Neill Celebrate Their 61st Marriage Anniversary

On Saturday, Jan. 12, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Neill celebrated the 61st anniversary of their marriage at their home seven miles east of Falkville, where they have lived practically the whole of their married lives. The celebrants are 81 years of age. Mrs. Neill whose maiden name was Elizabeth Baine, being a native of Rome, Ga. Mr. Neill coming here in his early youth

NOTED SPEAKERS TO URGE GROWTH OF FOOD PRODUCTS

THREE EXPERTS TO DELIVER SERIES OF ADDRESSES IN ALBANY AND VICINITY.

W. L. Wood, one of three lecturers to appear in Albany and vicinity from Thursday night until Saturday, arrived today. He is from Brookhaven, Miss., is a dairyman and stock raiser, and will take the place on the program originally assigned to Mrs. Adda F. Howie, who was prevented by illness from filling her engagement.

The lecturers appear here under the auspices of the Albany Boosters of the Albany Board of Commerce, and their itinerary is announced as follows:

Thursday, Jan. 17th.

J. M. Browning, at Albany Board of Commerce, 7:30 p. m.

H. S. Mobley—Somewhere in South Albany.

W. L. Wood—Austinville school house, 7:30 p. m.

Friday, Jan. 18th.

H. S. Mobley will address Albany high school Friday morning. At Antioch school, Somerville pike, 7 p. m.

W. L. Wood—Albany Y. M. C. A., 3 p. m. This meeting especially for ladies. Subject, "The Building of a Home." Mt. Zion school house, Moulton pike, 7 p. m.

J. W. Browning—Pleasant Hill school house, Moulton pike, 7 p. m. To Urge Gardening.

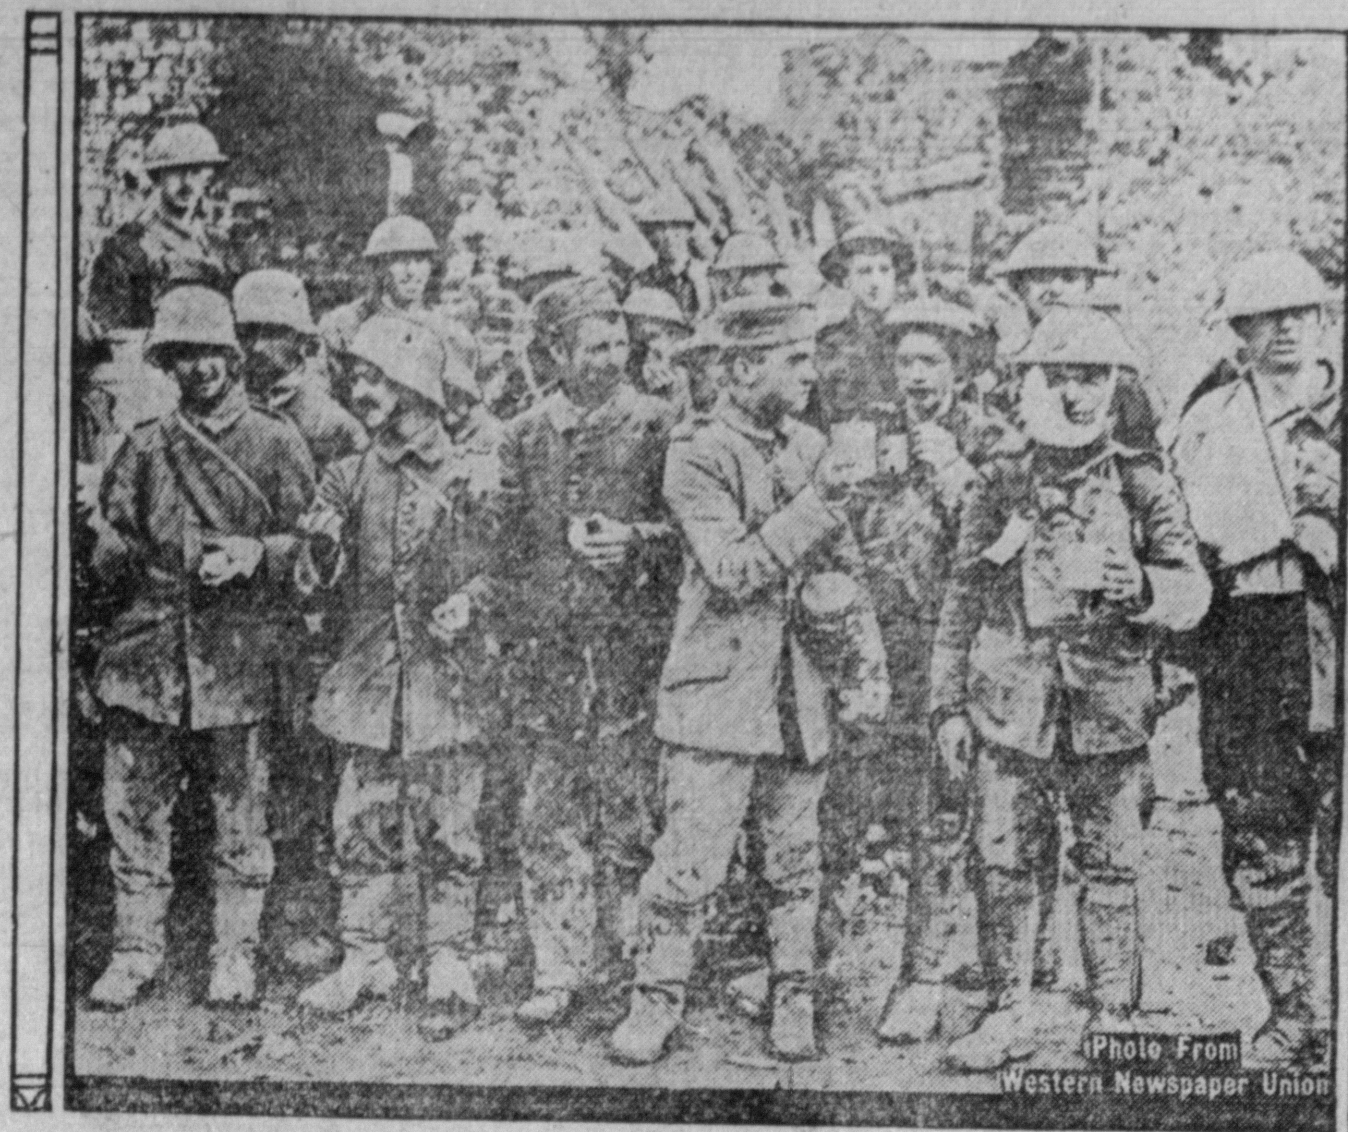

The purpose of the tour is to encourage the planting of larger food crops as part of the war program. Mr. Mobley, who has the record for planting the largest garden in the world, and who is the discoverer of the "bugless potato," will especially stress the need of community gardening. He is today at Birmingham, where he is leading a campaign for the planting of all vacant lots there in gardens.

RIDDLE NOMINATED FOR POSTMASTER AT GADSDEN

Washington, Jan. 16.—The president today sent to the senate for confirmation the name of S. W. Riddle for postmaster at Gadsden.

Loot Taken From Bank by Whistler Has Been Recovered

(International News Service.)
Camp Funston, Kansas, Jan. 16. The loot taken from the army bank by Capt. Lewis R. Whistler, axe-murderer, was found today. While there has not been an opportunity to count the money, it is believed that the entire amount missing, $62,822.21, has been recovered.

Wounded Canadian soldiers and their German prisoners getting comfort and cheer in the shape of hot coffee and biscuit at a Y. M. C. A. hut close to the fighting line on the west front.

Coal Lines Lengthen as the Severe Weather Continues

Something new under the sun—a coal line—has made its appearance in the Twin Cities. Unable to get coal fast enough to supply their wants, the local public has begun to charter every conceivable form of a dray and to send to the coal yards for fuel. The line at the yards of the Malone Coal, Grain & Motor Company, early this morning extended from the Daily office to the railroad tracks, a distance of more than one block.

Other coal companies reported the same rush. No cranberry merchant ever had as much business as the coal dealers of the Twin Cities are now surfeited with. The continued severe weather has made the fuel problem correspondingly more serious, and unless the weather breaks or relief comes soon, there is every indication that a drive will have to be made for the big woods in a short while.

OTT HAMES PRAISES GARFIELD CURTAILS CRIMSON TRIANGLE COAL SUPPLY OF AND THE RED CROSS NON-ESSENTIALS

Ott Hames, for many years manager of the Y. M. C. A. baseball team, is home on a brief furlough. He will leave Saturday on the return trip to Ft. Morgan, near Mobile, where he is now attached to Battery B, first trench mortar, which unit sailed for France.

One feature of camp life which the former "Y" athlete is especially pleased with is the work done by the Red Triangle and the Red Cross.

"I am ready to refute any statements that may have been made as to the sale of articles by either the Red Cross or the Army Y. M. C. A.," Mr. Hames said today. "Last Saturday my company of 240 men lined up and drew each a knitted helmet, wristlets, sweater and pair of socks—the contributions of the Red Cross. No Red Cross article can be bought, nor are the Red Cross activities linked entirely to the gift of knitted articles. Frequently the Red Cross workers from Mobile come out to our camp and give little entertainments for the boys. The Red Cross also presented us with a baseball outfit."

"As for the Y. M. C. A.—it is the nearest thing to home that I have encountered since I left. At Chattanooga where I was stationed for ten days, the boys filled the auditoriums and climbed into the rafters. Many entertainments were given for them. The only thing that can be bought at a 'Y' but is a postage stamp and that costs just the regular price."

Mr. Hames is looking unusually well. He is also sporting a swaggar stick, these being issued to all the men to keep their hands out of their pockets, he stated. He is much pleased with army life and declares that every man at Ft. Morgan is eager to get to France.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Jan. 16.—Dr. Harry A. Garfield, fuel administrator, will issue his order curtailing the coal supply of non-essential industries late today and it will become effective immediately. He is at work drafting its provisions, following the return to Washington this morning of P. B. Noyes, head of the conservation department of the fuel administration, who has been making a survey of conditions throughout the east. After receiving Mr. Noyes' report, Dr. Garfield went into immediate conference with the legal staff. He made it plain this afternoon that the needs of domestic consumers will be supplied first. If relief is not brought immediately he indicated that even industries essential to the war will be curbed temporarily.

LOANS TO FARMERS. (International News Service.)

Washington, Jan. 16.—Farmers throughout the United States were loaned $9,389,969 by the federal land banks during the month of December.

Attempt is Made To Murder Lenine

(International News Service.)
Amsterdam, Jan. 16.—The attempted assassination of Premier Lenine of Russia, was reported in a dispatch received here today from Petrograd. The would-be assassin fired four shots at the Bolshevik leader but all went wide of their mark. No other details were given.

ANTI-TACK LAW IS PASSED BY ALBANY COUNCIL

PROVIDES HEAVY PENALTY FOR STREET OBSTRUCTION. CITY HAS READY MONEY.

An anti-street obstruction law, the necessity for which was made plain by Halloween prankers, was enacted by the Albany city council at its session last night. The law provides severe penalties for strewing tacks in the streets, or for obstructing them in any way. It is printed in full in today's Daily.

The council also passed a resolution placing the sum of $2,879.01 to the general fund, the city thereby unexpectedly coming into just that much ready money. This fund has accumulated as the result of the payment of 3 per cent interest on city deposits, and heretofore the opinion has prevailed that it could be used only for the payment of interest on the public improvement bonds. It was found, however, upon investigation that the money could be passed to the general fund and used in meeting any of the city's obligations.

Collect An Old Debt.

A debt of some 13 years standing will be collected by the city, under instructions given to City Attorney Tennis Tidwell to affect a settlement with Maj. B. F. Holmes, owner of the Scharfburg property on lower Second avenue. This settlement is for the brick paving laid in front of the property, and with costs and interest added will total about $600, it was stated. The property has been sold to a local merchant and will be improved, it is understood.

L. W. Borton appeared before the council and asked for the reduction of the privilege license charged the Decatur Cornice & Roofing Co., stating that the concern did but little city business and was an asset to the town in that it had a large local payroll. The council ruled that all of the assessments must stand, in order that the city's many obligations might be met.

Permission was granted to Chas. Rountree to lay a sewer pipe connecting his lumber yard and offices with the main sewer, a distance of about 700 feet.

Dr. H. C. Ayers, veterinary surgeon, was allowed his privilege license on condition that he care for the city stock if necessary during the year.

Citizens of East Albany presented a petition for the placing of an arch light at Gum street and Commercial avenue. Referred to the light committee.

The street committee was authorized to extend the sewer pipe at Sixth (Continued on Page Two.)

FORMER PREMIER OF FRANCE DEALT WITH BERNSTORFF

Cablegrams Made Public Today Show Extent of German Intrigue

MAY AFFECT THE ARGENTINE SITUATION

Steamer Conveying Statesman to France Was Ordered Captured at Sea

(International News Service.)

Washington, Jan. 16.—Further proof that German intrigue was rampant in Argentina as far back as February, 1915, came from the state department today. In this connection it made public the intercepted telegrams which have resulted in the imprisonment of former Premier Caillaux of France, now held under an espionage charge. The cablegrams which spell the downfall of Caillaux also show that Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador to the United States, was at that time carrying on most dangerous pro-German propaganda from this city.

Caillaux in the cables is dealt with as a friend of Germany and stated that he would work for the German cause on his return to France. However, in the second cablegram made public by the state department, Bernstorff suggested to the German admiral that the steamer on which the French statesman was returning home be captured, as he was carrying important dispatches. In the event of capture, Bernstorff bespoke for Caillaux "courteous treatment."

It is likely that the making public of the cablegrams will have a good effect politically on the situation now existing in Argentina, where the pro-German element is again struggling to gain possession of the government.

Send Food, Not Soldiers, Urges Utah Senator

(International News Service.)

Washington, Jan. 16.—"Stop sending soldiers to Europe and in their place send ships labelled 'Food for our allies,'" was the appeal made in the senate this afternoon by Senator McCumber of North Dakota.

"It is the only way to ward off a premature peace before the United States can bring its full forces to bear against Germany," he declared. "Just now our allies need our food one thousand times more than they need our men."

He declared that if Great Britain was properly supplied with food, she and the United States could continue the war for forty years if necessary.

Supposed Bomb Found Today in Naval Dry Dock

(International News Service.)

An Atlantic Port, Jan. 16.—A supposed bomb was found today in the dry dock of a naval station in which one of the largest U. S. battleships was docked. The supposed bomb was about six inches long and shaped like a telephone receiver. Written on the side in German were the words: "This is a 25-second explosive bomb." Officials are investigating.

Drafted Men Who Failed to Show Up, Have a Chance to Make Good

Drafted men who failed to show up for examination when summoned, thereby becoming slackers in a sense and subject to prison sentences and first line positions, have one more chance to get in good with the government. Adjutant General Hubbard has notified the county exemption board that any person who failed to receive a notice to appear for examination, or for any other reasonable cause was prevented from ap-

SPY'S SWEETHEART ADMITS SHE IS THE MYSTERY WOMAN

(International News Service.)

Baltimore, Jan. 16.—The fate of Walter Sporrman, alleged German super-spy, is today in the hands of Attorney General Gregory.

In the city jail here today, Sporrman awaits the future, which may hold a death penalty for the crime which he is alleged to have committed against the United States. Sporrman will be held here until Deputy U. S. Attorney Lelane has collected all the evidence which appears to incriminate Sporrman as the leader of the band of German plotters against the United States.

The mysterious woman in the case is known today. She is Miss May Stoop, a pretty brunette of 22 or 23 years, the fiancée of the man charged with the offense. When located in Washington she said: "I suppose I am the mysterious woman referred to. I have been engaged to Walter for some time and I believe him to be innocent. If it is proven otherwise, then, of course, I shall renounce him."

Five other arrests were imminent today. Two of the men now under suspicion are prominent citizens. There is a decided feeling in Baltimore that if proven guilty Sporrman shall pay the extreme penalty.

Sporrman has been turned over to the department of justice. According to officials here he is so far held only as an "alien enemy" and the only charges against him are violation of the regulations prohibiting enemy aliens from entering barred zones.

Bill Would Abolish Hyphenate Alliance

(International News Service.)

Washington, Jan. 16.—Dissolution of the German-American Alliance, having a membership of hundreds of thousands of German descent, is provided for in a bill introduced this afternoon by Senator King of Utah.

THE WAR GOES ON:

A FIGHT TO THE FINISH.

Last hope that the war was to be ended by diplomacy and not by the arbitrament of arms fled with the triumph of the military element in Germany. This victory of the military side over the friends of democracy was foreseen, for there could be no doubt but that the military machine which the Kaiser has built from its foundations upon must master the common folk at home who knew that right must eventually triumph but were without means to enforce their wishes upon a war-mad empire.

The allied nations will accept the challenge for a fight to a finish. It is better, too, that Providence, to which the militarists have so often pointed, willed it that the last still neck of Germany was to be bowed by force. The destruction of a nation that ruthlessly set out to destroy the world is the only answer to the greatest problem of modern times.

The continued ascendancy of Pres-tantism means only that the war is to be prolonged. The central nations have not yet exhausted their resources. One year or two or three may pass before the Beast is annihilated. Only one thing is certain: that democracy will triumph in the end.

A REAL TRAGEDY OF THE BASE HOSPITAL.

In its mad haste to prepare for the titanic struggle in which it is engaged, the busy nation must halt for a moment to pay fitting tribute to Major Augustus Peabody Gardner, of the Second Georgia Infantry, who died at the base hospital at Camp Wheeler from pneumonia. None of the heroes who fall on the field of battle are more deserving of honor than this red-blooded man who resigned a seat in congress, surrendered a life of ease and luxury and hastened to join the fighting forces of his country.

While those congressmen who remain at their posts of duty are equally as patriotic as the representative from Massachusetts, there is a certain bit of romance that must attach to men like Major Gardner who vote for war and then jump into the thick of the fray. Action like this is the surest stamp of sincerity.
No thundering opponent nor frowning constituent could say that Gardner had voted a war for somebody else to fight.

The South as well as the North will mourn the passing of this chival-ric son of America.

KENTUCKY RATIFIES
THE PROHIBITION AMENDMENT.

There is consternation in the liquor camp now. Kentucky, the home of Bourbon and the domicile of more colonels than are serving in the armies of the world, has gone dry. The land of hillsides and still-sides, the land of the mint and julep, has put the axe to old John Barleycorn.

Colonel Watterson has been slapped in the face. The big distillers who constitute the elite of the Blue Grass region have been insulted. And all because an idea has swept the nation. The rank and file of "Old Kentucky," the descendants of Boone and Clay, tired of a pernicious traffic that enriched a few and enslaved the many, have applied the boot to the rum demon and kicked it clear out of the United States. There can be no doubt that national prohibition is coming. Mississippi and Kentucky have said so, and both are in the "Solid South," a section where the friends of Intemperance had expected to make their last stand behind the bastion of "states rights." Before the seven years has expired in which the constitutional amendment can be ratified, the bar and the rail will be but memories.

SWEET CHARITY IS ALWAYS AT HOME
AT THE HOSPITAL

BECAUSE POOR ARE NOT TURNED AWAY INSTITUTION IS IN DEBT.

"I see the hospital is to make an appeal," said a citizen.

"They don't do much charity work in they?" he continued.

"They certainly do!" exploded a member of the Everett True type and at once a conversation of Mrs.
C. C. Payne came to mind in which the Benevolent hospital worker said:
"Many charity patients are brought under the rules would be turned away, but how could suffering little children be turned away? How could anyone be refused who could be relieved of suffering."

"It is a fact," said a prominent authority of the hospital, "as will be shown in the forthcoming Benevolent Society Hospital printed report for the last two and a half years, that we would have very nearly met expenses if it had not been for the charity and uncollectable cases."

"When the full report is printed, then it will be no longer asked, 'Is the hospital self-supporting, or is the hospital making money?'"

"The inquiry was made as to what the Benevolent hospital had any other means of support."

"Not so you could tell it," was the reply. Of course the ladies in charge and no such glib expression as such long luxury is put far from them.
But the sharp sentence sums up the reply, does it do? When it is known that with a monthly running expense of from $400 to $700, only $55 per month is provided by a sure-enough income.

It seems that ancient Elijah's means of staying in connection with a support have been resorted to by the ladies of the Benevolent Society Hospital. They have not employed actual ravens, of course, such as were used to keep Elijah up, but there was to have been the same kind of dependence on Providence as was exercised by the Hebrew prophet.

For instance: The first winter of the hospital, a car of coal mysteriously appeared on the grounds, and no ill of lading was attached and no bill for the black diamond was ever presented. That the fact was discovered that Maj. B. L. Malone had something to do with the mines making a question in question does not destroy its confidential character. And the second year the work of A. Z.
Malley in getting a car, gratis, for the hospital was as much appreciated as the ravens had brought it.

"This year," said a hospital authority, "Mr. Hitt gave the wood from his property adjacent to the hospital rounds, which he cut the trees in ones. Superintendent Hubbard had the wood cut for a dollar a cord, and the bill of wood is heating the building now."

"The generous donations of vegetables and canned fruit at Thanksgiving is helping out the table and patients' trays," said one of the workers. "And the annual linen shower supplies much of the linen. But blankets, good warm blankets, such as you have on your bed, are certainly needed this weather."

Kind of Hospital It Is.

The Benevolent Society Hospital is what is called an open hospital—that is, any physician may bring his patients there for an operation or patient in cases of operations the hospital gets the price of the operating room, $10 for major operations and $5.00 for minor operations, which amounts barely cover the cost of necessary supplies at this time.

When questioned further as to the sources of income, one of the authorities said: "There are the donations of individuals, regular contributions from individuals, two churches contribute and two lodges, and women's clubs have helped much; also some operational have been given for the benefit of the hospital."

A SOUTHERN VOLUNTEER.

Yes, sir, I fought with Stonewall,
And faced the fight with Lee;
But if this here Union goes to war,
Make one more gun for me!
I didn't shrink from Sherman
As he galloped to the sea;
But if this here Union goes to war,
Make one more gun for me!

I was with 'em at Manassas—
The bully boys in gray;
I heard the thunderers roarin'
Round Stonewall Jackson's way,
And many a time this sword of mine
Has blazed the route for Lee;
But if this old Nation goes to war,
Make one more sword for me!

I'm not so full of fightin',
Nor half so full of fun,
As I was back in the sixties
When I shouldered my old gun;
It may be that my hair is white—
Such things, you know, must be—
But if this Union's in for war,
Make one more gun for me!

I hain't forgot my raisin'— Nor how 'in-sixty-two
Or thereabouts, with battle shouts
I charged the boys in blue;
And I say I fought with Stonewall,
And blazed the way for Lee;
But if this old Union's in for war,
Make one more gun for me!

RULERS WHO GAVE UP CROWN

Diocletian Relinquished Scepter to Raise Cabbages at Salona, While Charles V Turned Gardener.

It was Diocletian who quit dominion to raise cabbages at Salona, and who refused to die lord of the world, relates a historian. He was happier farming, he told the envoys of his friends, Charles V, Roman emperor and king of Spain, likewise laid down his scepter and turned gardener before he died. Philip V of Spain abdicated in favor of his son, but resumed the crown. Amurath, sultan of the Ottoman Turks, was luckier. He abdicated in favor of his son, but resumed the throne in a moment of national peril. Then he abdicated again.
A second time a national crisis called him from retirement, but he had tasted the pleasures of private life, and he hastened to return to them.

He was a great king, the greatest ruler of his generation, and the most capable commander. His arms were invincible on two continents, his territories inviolate, but he preferred the quiet of his palace of Adrianople, the conversation of poets and philosophers, and the theological arguments of the wise men of Islam to the counsels of his statesmen. He died peacefully in his bed, praising the peace he had come to know, and his son, the second Mohammed of the Ottoman line, won a more lasting reputation by the destruction of the Byzantine empire.

Human Engine Requires Fuel.

The human body, especially as regards nutrition, has justly been compared to an engine. If a steam engine is to perform a certain amount of work it must be supplied with fuel, and the quantity of fuel must be in proportion to the work to be performed, observes a scientist. In like manner, also, man to be able to act, requires fuel, which we call food; and like the engine, the person who has to perform a greater amount of work will also require a greater supply of food. Besides, the human engine does not stop for a second in its work, for even in the unfounded sleep heart and lungs are uninterruptedly active. From this it follows that as long as we live we are compelled to supply the body with ever-new fuel. He who neglects this duty will perish; his engine comes to a standstill.

Stop That Ache!

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of that pain and lameness! Use Doan's Kidney Pills.
Many people have used them and know how effective they are. Here's a Decatur case.

Mrs. J. D. Livingstone, 210 W.
Church St., says: "My kidneys weren't acting right and for over a year I was confined to bed suffering from inflammation of the bladder. No one but myself can know the severe pains I endured. My ankles and hands swelled and there were other distressing kidney disorders. I had a dull steady ache in the small of my back and was getting in a bad way when my family doctor recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. After I used one box I was much better. It is now about six years since I took Doan's and I haven't had a bad attack of kidney trouble since."

HIS NORTHERN BROTHER.

Just make it two, old fellow;
I want to stand once more Beneath the old flag with you,
As in the days of yore;
Our fathers stood together
And fought on land and sea,
The battles fierce that made us
A nation of the free.

I whipped you down at Vicksburg,
You licked me at Bull Run;
On many a field we struggled,
When neither victory won.
You wore the gray of Southland,
I wore the Northern blue;
Like men we did our duty,
When screaming bullets flew.

Four years we fought like heroes;
But when the war was done
Your hand met mine in friendly clasp,
Our two hearts beat as one,
And now, when danger threatens,
No North, no South, we know,
Once more we stand together
To fight the common foe.

My head, like yours, is frosty—Old age is creeping on;
Life's sun is lower sinking,
I charged the boys in blue;
But if our country's honor
Needs once again her son,
I'm ready, too, old fellow—
So get another gun.

AN ORDINANCE.

No. 246.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Albany, Alabama, as follows, to-wit:

Section 1.

It is hereby made unlawful for any person to strew, scatter, place or leave upon any public street, avenue or alley within the corporate limits of this city, any tacks, sprigs, nails, boards, shingles, planks, posts, poles, or any other objects of any kind or character, whether similar or different from any of the above named objects, for the purpose of hindering, impeding, interfering with or interrupting traffic or travel upon such street.

Section 2.

Anyone violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars, and may also be sentenced to work upon the streets of this city for a period of not exceeding six (6) months, one or both at the discretion of the Mayor or Recorder, trying the case.

Adopted Jan. 15, 1918.

Attest:—HENRY HARTUNG, Clerk.

I hereby approve the foregoing ordinance, this Jan. 16, 1918.

E. C. PAYNE, Mayor.

Foundress of Carthage.

It is believed to have been in the ninth century B. C. that the Phoenicians founded the colony of Carthage, on the northern coast of Africa, destined to become the most famous of all the numerous settlements made by them. Legend, however, credits Dido with being the foundress of Carthage. She was the daughter of a king of Tyre, whose successor was Pygmalion, the brother of Dido. He murdered her husband and sought to gain his wealth, but Dido, taking the treasure which had been hidden, and accompanied by a large number of Tyrians, escaped by sea.

While out of city, we have entrusted the collection of rents to J. A. Thornhill.

ance which you may have with us, see W. A. Bibb & Son.
Any business pertaining to loans,

WILLARD QUILTS DEFENSE COUNCIL

(International News Service.)

Washington, Jan. 16.—Daniel Willard, one of the most prominent of the big business men who has been assisting the government in preparing for war, has severed all connection with the Council of National Defense, it was announced today. He tendered his resignation as chairman of the advisory committee of the council some time ago, but announcement of it was withheld at the request of the president. President Wilson has now, however, accepted the resignation.

Mr. Willard gives up both his position as chairman of the advisory committee of the Council of National Defense and also his chairmanship of the war industry board, it was stated when the resignation was presented.

Mr. Willard stated that he could no longer serve and do justice to the affairs of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, of which he is president. The resignation was accepted to take effect as soon as a man could be found to take his place.

JUDGE CITIES BY POLICEMEN

Character of "Guardians of Peace" Serves as Criterion for Municipalities, Says Writer.

It used to be said that each country could be known by the Jews who lived within its borders. In the same way every city can be judged by the character of its policemen, writes Hendrik Willem van Loon, in Century Magazine.

In Christiania the policeman is a mild and amiable citizen in a rather shiny coat, and none too neat, who stands in the middle of the roadway and tries to maintain some semblance of order in the democratic muddle of the city's traffic.

In Stockholm the policeman is a walking arsenal, with sword and pistol and a brass helmet, and the arrest of a disorderly person becomes an act of state. There the policeman represents the high authority of a proud country. He fulfills his duty with a stern severity. He is the symbol of law and established order. Let no one touch these fundamentals of a well-regulated commonwealth.

In Copenhagen the policeman is neither the happy-go-lucky citizen who patrols the streets of Norway nor is he a creature of resplendent glory like his colleague in Sweden. He strikes a happy medium. In this he is an excellent representative of a land where the art of sensible and peaceful living seems to have been brought to its highest perfection. If only the chauffeurs of the Danish capital would learn how to drive their cars we should not have a single complaint to make against a country where everybody seems well fed, where beggars are as scarce as very rich people and where the women live up to the best traditions of the charming china which is made in the royal residence of Denmark.

If you need a clerk, salesman, stenographer or any kind of help, the quickest way is a Daily want ad.

LET SOMETHING GOOD BE SAID.

When over the fair fame of friend or foe

The shadow of disgrace shall fall, Instead

Of words of blame, or proof of thus and so.

Let something good be said.

Forget not that no fellow being yet

May fall so low but love may lift his head;

Even the cheek of shame with tears is wet

If something good be said.

No generous heart may vainly turn aside

In ways of sympathy; no soul so dead

But may awaken strong and glorified
if something good be said.

And so I charge ye by the thorny crown

And by the cross on which the Savior bled;

And by our own soul's hope of fair renown,

Let something good be said.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

HOSPITAL LINEN SHOWER.

The annual linen shower of the Benevolent Society Hospital will be held at the residence of Mrs. W. R.
Smith on Thursday, Jan. 17 at 3 p. m.

The following articles are needed:

Table cloths, 3 yards long; napkins;

woolen blankets, sheets 2x2 1/2 yards;

pillow cases, 45-inch; Indian Head domestic. The board suggests that by giving the price of sheets and pillow cases, materials can be bought and made up more economically, also surgeons' gowns and caps. Prices as follows: Sheets, $1.20; pillow cases,

40 cents; surgeons' gowns, $1.00. The need is very great and a liberal offering is expected. 14-15

DR. F. P. PETTEY ENTERTAINS.

Dr. Frank P. Pettey was host today at a turkey dinner given at the Palace

Cafe. A splendid specimen of the national bird constituted the piece de resistance and was flanked by several tempting side dishes. The affairs was normal and additional guests were drafted as they came in. Those who enjoyed the hospitality were Dr. Ira

Delameter, Claud Crawford, Chas. H.

Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. L. B.

Wyatt as hostess. In the enforced absence of the secretary, Mrs. J. W.

Cunningham served.

"Government Control of Food Prices," Mrs. E. H. Allison.

"The Navy," Mrs. L. B. Wyatt.

These ladies, as usual, gave excellent papers, showing a comprehensive study of their subjects.

WOMAN'S LITERARY CLUB.

Mrs. J. W. Cobb was hostess to the Woman's Literary club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Dinsmore, of Decatur, gave a paper on "Ladies of the White House," and Mrs. Reynolds told of the Universities of the South.

SPEND-THE-DAY PARTY.

Mrs. J. D. Bush is entertaining with a spend-the-day party today for Miss

Inez Coyle, of Huntsville.

Those invited are Mrs. Frank Yoe, of Mobile; Mrs. Roy Fite, Mrs. A. C.

Coyle and Miss Edith Goodman.

VEGETABLE SOUP.

According to a famous French chef, we Americans should eat more vegetable soup. At the age of 80 he was hale and hearty and said his chief diet was vegetable soup.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Vickers will leave tomorrow for Anniston, where they will visit their son. Returning they will stop over at Bessemer to attend the graduation from the Bessemer high school on January 25 of their grand-daughter, Miss Lucile

Vickers.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robertson are visiting in Kentucky.

Miss Bessie McKoin, after being confined to her room with a sprained

AMUSEMENTS*OUR BOYS OR SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE COMPANY, MASONIC THURSDAY, JANUARY 17th.

Since America entered the world war, one of the simplest words in the English language has been elevated to the first place in our hearts and minds. That word is "Somewhere."

"Somewhere in France" "Our Boy" fights for world freedom. Somewhere along the Atlantic coast the Sammies are embarking for the front; somewhere in the Atlantic ocean our lad-dies are daily battling with that wardly instrument of death and destruction, the sneaking submarine; somewhere close behind the battle lines "Our Girl" enacts the role of an angel of mercy in the garb of a Red Cross nurse. "Somewhere" is the mystic expression. What flights of the imagination can be attained by this simple word. "Somewhere" our boys are fighting in order that in the end "Everywhere" may be enjoyed that democracy which makes every man free and equal and accountable only to his conscience, to his God, and to the laws of a free land for his acts.

Washington, Jan. 16.—No daily newspaper of more than 16 pages would be granted second class mailing privileges for a period of one year, under a bill presented in the house this afternoon by Representative Ful-normal."

NOTES FROM ATHENS.

Miss Sarah R. Bandy is improving slowly after a short illness.

This cold weather in Athens, with the snow, has caused people to "watch their step" and look before taking the next one.

Many changes will take place among the merchants for the year 1918, both as to location and firm.

On account of shortage of fuel the city school has been closed for the past two days.

Hoyt Williamson is to arrive from Camp Wheeler for a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson.

GAMES OF SIAMESE KIDDIES

Girls Play Keeping House, With Dried Clay Dollies—Boys Jump Rope and Roll Marbles.

When the Siamese folks get up in the morning they do not go to the washstand to wash their faces, for the simple reason that Siamese houses can boast no such article of furniture, says an exchange.

So our little Siamese friend just runs down to the foot of the ladder—for the house is built on posts—to a large jar of water with a coconut shell dipper. There she washes her face by throwing the water over her hands and rubbing them over her face.

She needs no towel, for the water is left to dry. She does not brush her teeth, for they are stained black by chewing the betel nut. Her hair does not require combing, either, for it is all shaved except a little tuft on the top of the head, and that is tied in a little knot and not very often coiled.

After breakfast is over, the children go off and find some pleasant place in which to play. The girls play at keeping house and make dishes of clay dried in the sun. Little images of clay washed with lime are their only dolls.

The boys of Siam are very fond of pitching coins, and spend much of their time in this game. They play leap-frog and very often jump the rope.

Now that so many foreigners are in Siam, they have learned to play marbles, too.

As the streets in Siam are almost all rivers and canals, the Siamese boys and girls early learn to row, and paddle their little boats almost as soon as they learn to swim, which they do when they are only four or five years old.

WAR TALKS

By UNCLE DAN

Number Six

Billie and Jimmie Will Take Military Training.

"I am mighty sorry, Uncle Dan, that this is your last night with us. Can't you stay longer? We boys are having a peach of a time," said Billie.

"Well, if you get more out of it in the way of pleasure than I," said Uncle Dan, "you are going home."

"Billie, I have been talking seriously with your father and mother about sending you to a military academy and they asked me to talk with you about it."

"Whoopee!" Billie screamed, like a wild Indian.

"Now, hold your horses," said Uncle Dan, "and listen to me. You know I sent my boy, Howard, to one of these schools for a year when he was about your age. He was narrow chested, stoop shouldered, rather loose-jointed;
he had the big head and needed discipline and physical development. He was growing fast and I wanted him to be strong physically."

"Say, Uncle Dan," said Billie, "I believe your description of Howard fits me pretty well, eh?"

"Well," said Uncle Dan, "to be frank I think it does; you need the same thing. Howard did not like it at first. I am told for a few weeks he had 'rough sledding,' but after he found that the only way was to obey orders, he caught the spirit of the institution and liked it. We did not see him for about six months, then he came home for a few days. We were astonished at his appearance. He had gained about 20 pounds in weight, his muscles were as hard as nails, he stood as straight as an arrow, he was courteous, considerate and manly. His awkwardness had disappeared. The change was wonderful and it was all to the good. Here is a photograph showing 'before and after taking,' and I am sure no patent medicine advertisement could beat it.

"Well, mother and I were delighted.
That was ten years ago, and Howard says the year he spent at the military academy was the best year of his life.

"Now," said Uncle Dan, with great earnestness, "when such training does so much good, makes better citizens and at the same time fits a man to defend his country, why should not Uncle Sam furnish this training at the government's expense? The government has the right to call anyone to serve in case of war, and without training, a man is worth nothing as a soldier. Uncle Sam has splendid new training camps that will soon be available for the purpose, therefore, here is double reason why the Chamberlain bill for compulsory military training should be passed at once, so that every boy physically fit may have this training and not leave it for his parents to pay for.
On account of the expense, not one boy in 50 can take the training now. I am glad that you can do so. These big crops and big prices, I find, make the farmers rather 'cocky,' and that the best is demanded by them."

Billie was up with the lark the next morning, more excited and enthusiastic than ever. He had a plan. He knew Jimmie owned a colt worth $100; that he would make almost another $100 on his potatoes if they turned out well, and that he had from his previous savings, bought a $100 Liberty bond.
Billie's plan was to have Jimmie cash in and go with him. He was disappointed to find that Jimmie would still lack about $300 of having enough to see him through. His lip quivering, he said: "I'm mighty sorry to leave Jimmie."

Uncle Dan was silent a moment or two, then he asked Billie to go down to the orchard and get him some apples to eat on the train. While he was gone, it was arranged that Uncle Dan and Mr. and Mrs. Graham would advance the money necessary so that Jimmie could go. When Billie returned he was told about it. He ran to the phone and called Jimmie, saying:
"Come on over, run just as fast as you can, I've got the greatest news you ever heard of."

Incentives.
Up to the present time politicians and philosophers have not dreamed of rendering industry attractive; to en-chain the mass to labor, they have discovered no other means, after slavery, than the fear of want and starvation;
if, however, industry is the destiny which is assigned to us by the creator, how can we think that he would wish to force us to it by violence, and that he has no notion how to put in play some more noble lever, some incentive capable of transforming its occupation into pleasures?—Charles

Catarrh is a Real Enemy and Requires Vigorous Treatment

Do Not Neglect It.
When you use medicated sprays, atomizers and douches for your Catarrh, you may succeed in untopping the checked-up air passages for the time being, but this annoying condition returns, and you have to do the same thing over and over again.
Catarrh has never yet been cured by these local applications. Have you ever experienced any real benefit from such treatment?

Throw these makeshift remedies to the winds, and get on the right treatment. Go to your drug store to-day, get a bottle of S. S. S., and commence a treatment that has been praised by sufferers for nearly half a century. S. S. S. gets right at the source of Catarrh, and forces from the blood the germs which cause the disease. You can obtain special medical advice regarding your own case without charge by writing to Medical Director, 22 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

How the War Has Upset The World's Sugar Bowl

PRESIDENT BABST, OF AMERICAN SUGAR REFINING CO., TELLS WHY SUPPLY WEST SHORT.

PLENTY OF SUGAR SOON

AND IN SPITE OF DEMAND PRICE WILL PROBABLY REMAIN REASONABLY LOW.

No one ever dreamed that sugar, which the world produces in billions of pounds yearly, could become so scarce that folks would be asked by the government and the sugar refiners to use it sparingly. But the extraordinary conditions, also upset the world's sugar bowl.

Today, everybody is interested in sugar. The housewife is eager to know when sugar will be more plentiful. And from a different point of view, the business man is following the sugar situation, interested in the success of the plan adopted as an emergency war measure by the governments of the United States and the allies to regulate the control supply, demand and price.

These facts lend particular importance to the following interview with Earl D. Babst, head of the American Sugar Refining Company and one of the three United States members of the International Sugar Committee.

Not so many years ago, it wasn't the popular custom for men in Mr. Babst's position to discuss their business with the public. But Mr. Babst is of the new school of Big Business managers who believes the public is entitled to know all about it.

More Sugar Soon.

In the interview Mr. Babst covered every phase of the sugar situation. First, he spoke of the prospects of the immediate future, which most concerns the housewife. Said he:

"Sugar will soon be more plentiful, with the new crop of sugar cane being harvested in Cuba and Porto Rico. Everything is favorable to a sufficient supply for our needs, but not enough to use sugar extravagantly or wastefully. There must be no over-buying or hoarding."

"And what about the price?" he was asked.

"Ordinarily the so-called law of supply and demand is a most important factor in regulating the price of sugar as of every other commodity. But this law has been more or less if not entirely, suspended as the result of the control of the sugar situation by the act of six governments, including our own."

"All during the war sugar in the United States has been lower in price than the average yearly price, than anywhere else in the world. Today, comparing sugar on the basis of caloric food value, it is one of the cheapest foods."

Sugar Prices to Drop.

"After the new supplies are received from Cuba and refined, and prices are lowered under the proposals of the food administration, sugar will be one of the cheapest, if not the cheapest, foods to go on the American table."

Mr. Babst agrees with Mr. Hoover that if the allied nations had not entered into joint agreement to conserve the available sugar supply, the price to the consumer would have soared. Said he in explanation:

"The facts are these: Europe's production of sugar was not only greatly curtailed when the opposing armies swarmed over the sugar beet fields of northern France and Belgium but England and other foreign countries were forced to turn to other sources for sugar. The logical source was Cuba, from which the United States gets the bulk of its cane sugar. "This developed competition which, until the international agreement was reached, caused a serious advance in price both of raw and refined sugar. But with the international committee acting for the allies and the food administration in control in this country, the supply will be equally distributed and prices stabilized."

No Ships for Java.

"Great quantities of raw cane sugar are locked up in far-away Java, unavailable because ships cannot be spared to transport it. Hence the European allies are asking Cuba and the United States as a practical patriotic duty to supply them with sugar. The United States is making every effort to comply with this request for the very interesting reason that if we save the allies from the necessity of transporting 400,000 tons of sugar from Java, it will release shipping sufficient to carry about 200,000 American soldiers to France."

When Mr. Babst voluntarily appeared the other week before the senate sub-committee inquiring into the sugar situation, he told what his company, as well as the other large refining interests were doing to safeguard the sugar supply. Among other things, he laid emphasis on the value of sugar in packages as an economical means of distribution. "This especially interested Senators Lodge, Jones and Vardaman, and the subject was brought up in the interview. In reply to questions, Mr. Babst said:

He is head of the American Sugar Refining Co. and one of the American members of the International Sugar Committee.

"Yes, I presume the public, being interested in having the sugar supply conserved, is equally interested in knowing why sugar in packages can be more economically distributed than loose sugar. And this is the reason:

"In the first place, package sugars are weighed and packed by machine. This saves the grocer's time and stops his loss by spillage which occurs when sugar has to be scooped by hand out of a barrel, carried to the scales, weighed and tied in paper bags. And when he counts this saving, plus the value of his time and the cost of paper bags and string, he finds he can handle package sugar more economically."

Making Sugar Go 'Round.

"Sugar in packages also enables him to restrict sales to actual needs, to make it go as far as possible. In our own experience during the recent period of great scarcity, we were able to distribute sugar more widely because instead of sending barrel of 350 pounds to one grocer, we could send the same number of pounds, in three cases of 120 pounds to the grocers."

In conclusion, Mr. Babst said: "With the sugar refining industry in this country carried on by large business units, the public has benefited. We and the other sugar refiners have fully appreciated our responsibility to safeguard the sugar supply, made especially difficult by present world conditions."

The American Sugar Refining Company, of which Mr. Babst is president, refines and distributes about one-third of all the sugar consumed in the United States.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

BRITISH LABOR'S NEWEST STAND PLEASES AMERICA

Washington, Jan. 16.—British labor's renunciation of annexations in Asia Minor, India and Africa with declarations for vast protectorates marked Britain's most important step forward in the interest of democracy in the war, officials declared here today. They insisted it would be impossible to over-estimate the importance of this announcement, made with the full sanction of the government. It backs up effectively President Wilson's appeal to the Russian people. Whether it will hold the Russians against a Berlin-made peace is fully as problematical as the ultimate outcome of President Wilson's message. Meanwhile organized labor in the United States endorses to a complete extent the British position.

U. S. GOVERNMENT BABY
BONDS FOR DAILY
READERS.

To give the ambitious men and women, boys and girls of North Alabama an opportunity to earn government bonds in their spare time The Daily today makes an offer which is fraught with great possibilities to those who will devote a few hours a week to pleasant and profitable endeavor. Of course, you have heard of the Baby Government Bonds which the U. S. Treasury is issuing and urging people in all walks of life to purchase. These bonds are now being sold at $4.12, bear 4 per cent interest and will be redeemable in five years at their full value—$5.00. Holders of bonds desiring to turn them into cash may cash same at any time on ten days' notice at the postoffice.

THE OFFER
The Daily will present one war savings certificate with a par value of $5 to each person who will bring or send into this office during January and February FIVE NEW, PAID IN ADVANCE YEARLY SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE DAILY AT THREE DOLLARS EACH, MAKING A TOTAL OF $15.00. Subscriptions sent in must be bona-fide NEW names of persons who have never before been subscribers to this newspaper or ones whose names have not been on our books for a period of one year. Changing the paper from one member of the family to another does not constitute a new subscriber. All subscriptions submitted must be delivered by mail and to those living outside of the carrier limits of the cities of Albany and Decatur.

HOW TO START.
Every ambitious man or woman, girl or boy, who desires to take advantage of this offer by which both the U. S. government, the Daily and themselves will benefit, should write to The Daily today, stating their intention of going after one of the Bonds, then starting in rounding up the yearly subscriptions which will spell success.

Start today—make a canvass of your friends and neighbors, ascertain if they are taking The Daily, and if not, book them for a yearly subscription. When you have secured the five subscriptions desired, bring or mail same to this paper, accompanied by the $15 and a Baby Bond will be secured in your name from the postoffice department and given or mailed to you. There is no limit to the number of Bonds you may secure during two months; it is simply up to you to see how many new subscribers you can secure.

While those residing in Albany and Decatur may go in for these prizes if they wish, subscriptions they turn in must be from outside the two cities.
